Lingua Inglesa

Para se mexer:

Second Conditional

We use to mention the consequence or the result of a certain situation or condition.

PAST: We form by using IF + SUBJECT + PAST SIMPLE / RESULT WOULD + VERB.

EX: If I won in the lottery I would buy a new cell phone.

Se eu ganhasse na loteria, eu compraria um celular novo.

If I ate 20 hamburgers, my stomach would explode.

Se eu comesse 20 hambúrgueres, meu estômago explodiria.

PRESENT: We form by using IF + SUBJECT + PRESENT / RESULT WILL + VERB.

EX: If Jack heats the food, she will enjoy.

Se Jack aquecer a comida, ela gostará.

Don't forget to add S/ES/IES when the subject is HE/SHE/IT.

Lingua Inglesa

When we have the verb to be it's common to use WERE for all the subjects, but we can use WAS specially for HE/SHE/IT.

We form by using IF + SUBJECT + WERE/WAS / RESULT WOULD + VERB.

EX: If were you, I wouldn't go by car.

Se eu fosse você, eu não iria de carro.

If she was my friend , she would call me.

Se ela fosse minha amiga, ela me ligaria.

Question 2- Read the text.

Mystery of the Red Truck

It has been confirmed that late on the night of the sixth of July, a large red truck ran into the bakery on Maryland Street. After an initial investigation by police, it is now clear that the truck had no driver at all. The locals are asking a simple question: "Where was the driver?" If the police want to solve this mystery, they will need the CCTV footage from the street. One of the locals said: "We're all quite worried about a truck with no driver. This truck has never been seen in the neighbourhood before. If we'd seen that truck before, we'd solve this mystery now." Many locals share the same concerns. They want to know what's happening in their town.

A witness at the crime scene told police: "There was a loud noise coming from the truck while it was going towards the building and its speed.... it was unbelievable. If it had been going slower, I would've had a chance to see the driver. But all I saw was the truck speeding into the bakery as fast as it could. "

The police have already spoken with eleven other residents but no one knows any further details about the incident. Superintendent Amanda Slippers remarked: "This is a tough case. The truck licence plate belongs to this town, but nobody has seen it here. According to the town records, the owner of the truck moved away from here years ago. No one knows where to. If we located the owner, we'd probably solve this mystery."

If a truck moves, then it has a driver. Well, maybe we should change this basic assumption on account of this mysterious red truck.

Write (T) for true or (F) for false according to the text.

1. The locals knew that the red truck had an old driver. _____
2. The police have investigated all the people in the town. _____
3. The CCTV footage of the street will help the police. _____
4. The locals haven't seen the truck in the town before. _____

Resp. 1. F; 2. F; 3. T; 4. T
