Neste Guia, você vai estudar “Dynamic and stative verbs”

Pág. 42 do Volume 6

Prof. Juliana Alvarez

Para se mexer:

Dynamic verbs: describe an action and they can be written in the simple and continuous forms.

We can use verbs like talk, walk, grow, change, die, play, write, cry, deserve, come, swim etc.

We are walking every afternoon.

Marilyn has been working since this morning.

She talks about that guy all the time.

I play games every day.

Stative verbs are not action verbs, but they describe a feeling, a perception or natural ability then, usually are not used in the continuous form.

We can use verbs like love, like, believe, know, need, understand, have (when it means own) etc.

I still believe that he loves me.

She has two brothers.

Kelly loves to go shopping.

They understand my opinion now.
